REGIONAL DELEGATE REPORT

- Spiritual Principle A Day Book Project Information
- The Spiritual Principle a Day (SPAD) Book Project continues, and NAWS is happy for all the advance material they've received to date. As in previous book projects, they will rely on members' writings to provide the raw material for this book. Think of the advance material we submit as the fibers that will weave together to create the fabric of each day's reading. NAWS invites you to submit advance materials in any language. This is the way to affect the book most profoundly. Visit the SPAD webpage (www.na.org/spad) for all the latest information including links for online submission of advance material and workshop tools in several languages.

The Fellowship has been "spinning wool" related to many spiritual principles. The newest are Balance, Compassion, Creativity, Goodwill, Grace, Harmony, Humility, Imperfection, Intimacy, Maturity, Resilience, and Vulnerability. All of these are available to submit input on until the end of March 2019. Thanks in advance for workshopping and writing on these and on what's to come. Check back at www.na.org/spad frequently to stay in the loop on SPAD news. Florida Service Symposium – March 21-24, 2019, Tampa, F
